

Tunde Amolegbe Profile

It is exciting to be part of the school community and given the opportunity to serve as a new governor having just moved to the area.

My aim is to learn and contribute positively to the vision and mission of Milton Mount and the immediate community.

I am bringing on board my experience working with young homeless people and insights into early years and early help.